

Mr. Powell shows his contempt for his job and the future of an informed electorate in refusing to maintain ownership rules which promote the welfare of our democracy. He will be held accountable. Media diversity and thus freedom of opinion can only be maintained with wide and varied market competition. Let the record show whether Mr. Powell favors contempt for the First Amendment with this potential totalitarian control of the media or whether he is committed to serving our Constitution and the American people.